Aurangabad, March 4: A half-day seminar on Union budget 2008-09 evoked a good response. Expert on indirect taxes, VS Date, expert on service tax, Sanjay Bhargave, the deputy general manager of the State Bank of Hyderabad (SBH), K Laxmesha, and chartered accountant, RG Zanwar expressed their views on various aspects of the budget.

The seminar was organized by the Aurangabad chapter of the Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India (ICWA) in Aurangabad on Monday. Earlier the vice-chairman of the chapter, SP Bangale, welcomed the main speakers while Sanjay Mundade introduced them. The chairman of the training committee, AR Joshi, made the introductory speech and the chairman of the chapter, RP Gore, appraised the audience about the activities carried out by the chapter.

K Laxmesha said that the budget gives relief not only to farmers but also middle class and industrialists. It aims at wooing people keeping the general elections in mind, he opined.

Expressing his opinion on the budget VS Date said that several loopholes have been left in the draft of the budget.

However the budget is a sincere effort at simplification of taxation, he admitted.

Sanjay Bhargave said that reduction in excise duty will help to remove the deficit in the budget. RG Zanwar appraised the audience with the amendments in income tax provisions and solutions. Rajesh Shukla conducted the proceedings while Sanjay Mundade proposed a vote of thanks. Present on the occasion included RD Khandalkar, Anand Pujari, SR Pimple, SB Khadke, Ravindra Kumar, JB Galande, RM Pandit and others.

Absconding criminal held

Aurangabad, March 4: The crime branch police on Tuesday arrested a man who has been absconding for the past one year, from Railway Station area.

The police said the accused, identified as Shaikh Majju Shaikh Gani (23, a resident of Shahgunj), has been sent to Harsul Jail. In 2002, Majju was awarded one year imprisonment and fined Rs 2,000 after he was found guilty of a crime. He, however, managed to give the police the slip and escaped from the prison. On Tuesday, the police got a tip-off that he was hiding in a house in Abrar Colony in Railway Station area. Following which the police raided the house and arrested the criminal.
